21.4 Boats wishing to leave their race course area before the end of the day's racing shall not do so unless authorised by a safety boat. The safety boat will instruct boats in the procedure for returning ashore.

21.4 Boats not intending to race shall inform the Race Office as soon as possible.

Tallying out and in.

- 21.5 Boats will be attributed a tally number at registration.
- 21.6 Each competitor shall, in person, tally out with the correct tally number before launching.-
- 21.7 A boat intending to launch after the warning signal of the first race of that day shall report to the Race Office and comply with any instructions given.
- 21.8 Each competitor shall, in person, tally in using the correct tally number within 10 minutes after the last boat in her Division (or fleet if fleets are racing separately) is ashore.
- 21.9 A boat that does not tally out according to SI 21.6 will receive a Standard Penalty for the first race of the day.
A boat that does not tally in according to SI 21.7 will receive a Standard Penalty for the last race of the day.
The Standard Penalty for tallying shall be 5 points for the first infringement of the series, 10 points for the second and 20 for the third and subsequent infringements.
- 21.10 When ashore boats shall be kept in their assigned berth.

22 REPLACEMENT OF CREW OR EQUIPMENT

- 22.1 Substitution of competitors will not be allowed without prior written approval of the race committee. [DP]
- 22.2 Substitution of damaged or lost equipment will not be allowed unless authorised by the race committee. Requests for substitution shall be made to the committee at the first reasonable opportunity. [DP]

23 EQUIPMENT AND MEASUREMENT CHECKS

- 23.1 A boat or its equipment may be inspected at any time for compliance with the Class rules and Sailing Instructions.
- 23.2 On the water, a boat can be instructed by a Technical Committee member to proceed immediately to a designated area for inspection.

24 EVENT ADVERTISING [DP]

- 24.1 If required, boats shall display event advertising, supplied by the organising authority, on hull and or sail. Some competitors may be required to wear race bibs.

25 OFFICIAL VESSELS

- 25.1 Official vessels will be identified as described on the official notice board.

26 SUPPORT VESSELS [DP] [NP]

- 26.1 Support vessels shall not enter within 100 metres of areas where boats are or will be racing from the time the orange flag is displayed until all boats of all fleets in that race have finished or the Race Committee signal a postponement or abandonment.
- (a) When a holding line has been laid (see SI 13.4) support vessels shall remain to leeward of that line and its extensions 100 metres each side of the holding line marks from the first warning signal of a race until all fleets in that race have started, or all fleets have been postponed or abandoned.
- (b) To observe a race, support vessels may move from leeward to windward on the port side of the course area, leaving the course area at least 100 metres to starboard.
- (c) Support vessels may, after the last start of a race, move directly between the waiting and the finishing areas.
- (d) When a race committee or jury vessel orders a support vessel to move further from the course area, she shall do so immediately.

26.2. If the protest committee finds that a support vessel has infringed SI 26.1 or NOR 11 boats associated with the infringing support vessel may be penalized in one or more races. This changes rule 63.1

26.3. Competitors shall not approach any vessel other than an official vessel or a registered support vessel from their first warning signal of the day until they finish their last race for the day or the Race Committee signals no more racing today, whichever is later.

27 TRASH DISPOSAL [DP]

27.1 Trash may be placed aboard support and race committee vessels.

28 RADIO COMMUNICATION

28.1 Except in an emergency, a boat that is racing shall not make voice or data transmissions and shall not receive voice or data communication that is not available to all boats. [DP]

29 PRIZES

29.1 Prizes may be awarded at the discretion of the organising authority.

30 RISK STATEMENT

30.1 Rule 4 of the Racing Rules of Sailing states: "The responsibility for a boat's decision to participate in a race or continue racing is hers alone."

Sailing is by its nature an unpredictable sport and therefore inherently involves an element of risk. By taking part in the event each competitor agrees and acknowledges that:

- (a) They are aware of the inherent element of risk involved in the sport and accept responsibility for the exposure of themselves, their crew and their boat to such inherent risk whilst taking part in the event;
- (b) They are responsible for the safety of themselves, their crew, their boat and their other property whether afloat or ashore;
- (c) They accept responsibility for any injury, damage or loss to the extent caused by their own actions or omission;
- (d) Their boat is in good order, equipped to sail in the event and they are fit to participate;
- (e) The provision of a race management team, patrol boats and other officials and volunteers by the event organisers does not relieve them of their own responsibilities;
- (f) The provision of patrol boat cover is limited to such assistance, particularly in extreme weather conditions, as can be practically provided in the circumstances;
- (g) The fact that race officials may conduct inspections of a boat does not reduce the responsibilities of each competitor set out in these Sailing Instructions.

31 INSURANCE

31.1 Each participating boat and support vessel shall be insured with adequate valid third-party liability insurance.

32 DATA PROTECTION AND IMAGE RIGHTS

32.1. At registration competitors will be requested to complete a form giving permission to the Organising Authority to collect and use data about the competitor for the purpose of organising this Championship. The Organising Authority has adopted a Data Protection Policy for the Championship which be displayed at Registration.

32.2 By entering the Championship competitors and support persons accept that the Organising Authority may arrange for images or videos to be taken at the event both on the water and on shore. Competitors and support persons will be requested to complete a form giving consent to the taking of such images and to the use, reuse, publication and republication of such images in any media, in conjunction with the competitors name or not, without compensation and without the competitors approval of such images or any use thereof. The images may only be used for the promotion of the event, of the organising authority or of IODAI.
